THE WILCOX FAMILY.

THE WILCOX FAMILY is of Saxon origin, and was seated at Bury St. Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, England, before the Norman Conquest. Sir John Dugdale, in the visitation of the County of Suffolk, mentions fifteen generations of this family previous to 1600. This traces the family back to 1200. In the reign of King Edward III., Sir John Wilcox was entrusted with several important commands against the French and had command of the cross-bow men from Norfolk, Suffolk and Essex. John William Wilcox of Bury Priory, in Suffolk, an eminent Q. C., is the representation of the ancient family. On old records the name is spelled Wilcox, Wilcocks, Wilcoxson and Willcox.

FIRST GENERATION.

(1) WILLIAM WILCOXSON, of Stratford, Ct., born in 1601, at St. Albans, Hertfordshire, England, came to this country when 34 years old in ship Planter, having certificate from Minister at St. Albans, freeman of Mass. 1636, moved to Stratford in 1639, Representative at Hartford, 1647, died 1652.
